Pupil

Teacher

Teacher evaluation: Ticks

ction Film	n Analysis:	Fourth	Level	screening
------------	-------------	--------	-------	-----------

Fictio			lm A	nalysis: Fourth Level Oscreening
Name:				Task:
Success Criteria: Throughout this task, I have shown that I can confidently			Teacher	Success Criteria: Throughout this task, I have shown that I can confident	tly

			1
Summarise the main plot points in the film		Recognise and explain the impact of mise-en-scène (costume, set, props, lighting, actor position, colour)
Identify the theme of the film and explain how this was developed throughout		Recognise and explain the impact of camerawork (framing, angle, movement)	_

how this was developed		Recognise and explain the impact of camerawork (framing, angle, movement)
react to what you have learned		Recognise and explain the impact of editing within a narrative sequence

Teacher evaluation: Targets

Identify any historical or social issues and react to what you have learned about them		Recognise and explain the impact of editing within a narrative sequence
Evaluate how well issues/themes were developed and say what I thought of them		Explain how the narrative has used a certain structure and/or conventions
Identify the target audience of the film and explain how they have been targeted		Explain how genre conventions have been used in the film

them
Identify the target audience of the film and explain how they have been targeted		Explain how genre conventions have been used in the film
Evaluate the filmmaker's work by commenting on how well the film/part of the film was created		Identify and explain the impact of sound (effects, score, songs)
Use quotations or evidence from the film to justify my responses		Identify representations in the film and explain why I think they have been used

Self-evaluation: Looking back on this task, I need to work on... Self-evaluation: Looking back on this task, I am pleased with...

curriculum for excellence	ΝI
	IN

Identify the target audience of the film and explain how they have been

Identify any historical or social issues and react to what you have learned

Evaluate the filmmaker's work by commenting on how well the film/part of

Explain how well issues/ideas were developed and say what I thought of Self-evaluation: Looking back on this task, I am pleased with...

Identify the filmmaker's opinions and react to them targeted

them

about them

the film was created

Teacher evaluation: Ticks

lon-Fiction Film Analysis: Fourth Level	O		S
---	---	--	---

CUI	alui	1110	XCE		Non-Fiction Film Analysis, Fourth Level	screening
					Non-Fiction Film Analysis: Fourth Level	shorts

screening shorts
511016

Recognise and explain the impact of editing within a narrative sequence

Recognise and explain the impact of persuasive techniques (voiceover,

Identify representations in the film and explain why I think they have been captions, presenter, photographs, archive footage, interviews...)

Identify and explain the impact of sound (effects, score, songs)

Use quotations or evidence from the film to justify my responses

Self-evaluation: Looking back on this task, I need to work on...

CC	250	١Ħ	rr	00
	-	,,,	•	9

Name:		Task:
Success Criteria: Throughout this task, I have shown that I can confidently	Pupil	Teacher	Success Criteria: Throughout this task, I have shown that I can confidently	Pupil	Teacher
Summarise the main points/ideas in the film			Recognise and explain the impact of mise-en-scène (costume, set, props, lighting, actor position, colour)
Identify the purpose of the film and explain how this was achieved			Recognise and explain the impact of camerawork (framing, angle, movement)

used

Teacher evaluation: Targets

Teacher evaluation: Ticks

Filmmaking, Fourth Lovel

resources

				rılmmaking: rourin Levei
Name	:			Task:

Success Criteria: Throughout this task, I have shown that I can confidently	Pupil	Teacher	Success Criteria: Throughout this task, I have shown that I can confidently	Pupil	Teacher
Create a film that links to the task I was given			Use aspects of mise-en-scène (costume, set, props, lighting, actor position,

Create a film that links to the task I was given		Use aspects of mise-en-scène (costume, set, props, lighting, actor position, colour) to add interest and/or affect viewers
Identify a target audience for my film/moving image text and include content that appeals directly to them		Use particular types of camerawork (framing, angle, movement) to add interest and/or affect viewers

content that appeals directly to them		interest and/or affect viewers
Create a script and/or storyboard for my film		Use editing to create a sequence that adds interest and/or affects viewers

Plan and organise myself and/or my group in preparation for filming (e.g. book equipment, find shooting locations, find/make costumes/props)		Use narrative structure and/or conventions to add interest and/or affect viewers
Explain why I made certain choices for my film by referring to other texts that		Use genre conventions to add interest and/or affect viewers

book equipment, find shooting locations, find/make costumes/props)		viewers
Explain why I made certain choices for my film by referring to other texts that I have watched or read		Use genre conventions to add interest and/or affect viewers
Review my film by evaluating on what worked well, what I was less pleased		Use sound (effects, score, songs) to create mood and atmosphere and/or

Self-evaluation: Looking back on this task, I am pleased with			Self-evaluation: Looking back on this task, I need to work on
Review my film by evaluating on what worked well, what I was less pleased with, and what I would do differently next time			Use sound (effects, score, songs) to create mood and atmosphere and/or affect viewers
Explain why I made certain choices for my film by referring to other texts that I have watched or read			Use genre conventions to add interest and/or affect viewers

Teacher evaluation: Targets

Teacher evaluation: Ticks

Fiction Film Literacy: Fourth Level

screening
shorts

Name:	Task:
Success Criteria: Throughout this task, I have shown that I can confidently	Pupil	Teacher	Success Criteria: Throughout this task, I have shown that I can confidently	Pupil	Teacher
Summarise the main plot points and/or themes and/or historical or social issues in a film and use what I learned to create a film that covers similar plot points, themes or historical/social issues			Explain the impact of mise-en-scène (costume, set, props, lighting, actor position, colour) in a film and use what I learned to design the mise-en-scène in my own film
Research pre-production roles (health and safety, production design,			Explain the impact of camerawork (framing, angle, movement) in a film

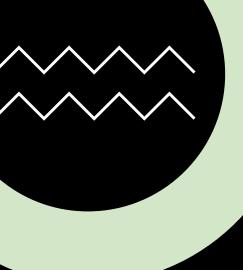

Research pre-production roles (health and safety, production design, location scout) and use what I learned to plan and organise my own film		and use what I learned to design the camerawork in my own film
Explain how the target audience of a film have been targeted and use what I've learned to create film content that appeals to a specific audience		Explain the impact of editing within a narrative sequence in a film and use what I learned to create a storyboard and edit a sequence in my own film
Explain why I made cortain choices for my own film by evaluating the work		Evolgin the impact of parrative structure and/or conventions in a film and

Explain how the target audience of a film have been targeted and use what I've learned to create film content that appeals to a specific audience		Explain the impact of editing within a narrative sequence in a film and use what I learned to create a storyboard and edit a sequence in my own film
Explain why I made certain choices for my own film by evaluating the work of a filmmaker , c ommenting on how well the film/part of the film was created		Explain the impact of narrative structure and/or conventions in a film and use what I learned to create the narrative in my own film

Explain why I made certain choices for my own film by evaluating the work of a filmmaker, commenting on how well the film/part of the film was created		Explain the impact of narrative structure and/or conventions in a film and use what I learned to create the narrative in my own film
Use quotations or evidence from a film I have studied and from my own film to justify my responses		Explain how genre conventions have been used in a film and use what I learned to make a film within a specific genre
Explain the use of representations in a film and use what Hearned to		Explain the impact of sound (effects, score, sonas) in a film and use what I

Use quotations or evidence from a film I have studied and from my own film to justify my responses			Explain how genre conventions have been used in a film and use what I learned to make a film within a specific genre
Explain the use of representations in a film and use what I learned to represent a particular group in a deliberate way in my own film			Explain the impact of sound (effects, score, songs) in a film and use what I learned to design the sound in my own film
Self-evaluation: Looking back on this task, I am pleased with			Self-evaluation: Looking back on this task, I need to work on

Teacher evaluation: Targets

Credits

Resource created by Gail Robertson on behalf of Screen Scotland.

For more information on Film Education resources and opportunities, go to Home Screen Scotland