

Film vs Fact worksheet

Filmmakers will often change facts (scientific, historical, geographical...) to maximise entertainment value. Complete this table for a film you have seen on and research what the facts really are. Put yourself in the shoes of the filmmakers and try to guess why they made each change.

What the film shows	What really happened	Why you think the change was made

What the film shows	What really happened	Why you think the change was made

<http://www.screeningshorts.org.uk>